(2) Find the chapter “Children and Crime”!

(3) Look at the pictures and read the short texts!

a.) Life in London was hard! What problems were there?

.....

b.) Children had to work up to 12 hours a day! What jobs did they do?

.....
.....
.....

c.) What “alternative” was there to working for children?

d.) When did the first policemen work on London streets?

e.) What was the policemen’s nickname (after the Home Secretary)?

.....

Oliver had a hard time at the workhouse. Later he met Fagin and his boys. They were criminals! If Oliver didn’t have to work in such bad circumstances, he wouldn’t have met Fagin.

Make a poster AGAINST child labour!

Write down what children need!
